

Send your kids to camp for as little as $25. The Sunshine Fund is now accepting applications for the 2010 season so submit before for camp spots fill up! The Sunshine Fund is a non-profit charitable organization that has helped families send their kids to summer camp since 1979. The camping experience goes far beyond fun and instilling a love of the outdoors. Camp programs encourage independence, leadership, teamwork, fitness, confidence and other important life skills that contribute to the success and well being, not only of kids, but their families as well.
